THE COUNTY FAIR.

The Ninth Annual exhibition of the Anderson County, is now in progress. The exhibition is a fine one and deserves the patronage of our people. It will continue through Friday, and all who desire to see the evidences of prosperity and advancement in Anderson County should avail themselves of the opportunity of attending to-day and to-morrow.

THE PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION.

We publish in another column the Proclamation of President Grant, declar ing that "insurrections and domestic violence in several Counties of South Carolina, and that certain combinations of men against law exist in many counties of said State, known as Rifle Clubs, who ride up and down, by day and night, in arms, murdering some peaceable citibinations, though forbidden by the laws of the State, cannot be controlled or suppressed by the ordinary course of justice." And upon this the whole available army of the United States is ordered into South Carolina. Every citizen of the State knows that every allegation contained in the proclamation is untrue. Grant knows, from the testimony of every Judge in the State, that his statements are untrue, and that they rest upon the false representations of Chamberlain and Patterson. A portion no insurrection against the government, no resistance to civil process, and the whole country in peace, except where the colored malitis, armed with State guns, are assaulting and killing the friends, and not a gun has been fired or an enemy seen or heard of by the army. And still Grant continues to send more troops. Was there ever such a farce enacted before in any civilized country? lives and property of the people were not placed in jeopardy, and the constitutional rights of citizens and States trampled upon in disregard of the facts of the case and the laws of the land. Grant did not send his army here to suppress insurrection, for there is none to suppress, nor to disperse disorderly armed bodies, for there is not one in the State: the people are at home attending to their daily avocations. He did not send it here to elect Hayes, for he knows that his usurpations are so flagrant and so News and Courier, and Judge T. J. destructive to the rights of citizens that Mackey, a prominent Republican, for its tendency in the North will be to defeat Hayes. It becomes, then, a question of the greatest importance to the people like the work of "Honest" John Patterof the whole country to inquire why the army is sent into the State. It may be to defeat Hayes and make himself military dictator. By sending troops into this State, and taking military possession of it in time of profound peace, he has set at naught the constitution and laws of the land, and placed himself at the head of the army, ready for any future Coup d'état. The House of Representatives is largely Democratic and the Senate Republican, and the concurrence of these two bodies is required to count the electoral vote of each State. A disagreement in counting the vote between the two Houses may open the way for Grantism, which has already usurped military control of one State, to seize the whole, and as a military despot govern the whole, as he seeks to govern South Carolina. The first act in the drama of military domination is being played, and the subsequent ones will follow, unless arrested on the 7th day of next November by the people at the ballot box.

The New York Herald says: "To give a man a day's work on election day with the object of keeping him from the polls is not an unknown device in Northern States. It is only when it becomes common that it attracts general attention."

Hon Francis P. Blair, a distinguished journalist and statesman, died in Washington City on Thursday last, aged eighty-seven years.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

General Hampton's canvass has been the most enthusiastic success ever known in South Carolina, and presages the grandest victory at the polls ever achieved in this glorious commonwealth. Chamberlain, with all his boasted intellect, is but a pigmy compared with the noble type of the true Carolinian, as

Referring to the President's proclamaion, the New York Herald gives this advice to the South Carolina Democrats: "The only course to be pursued, then, is to afford no pretence for the use of troops, and to let all violence come from those who are loudest in demanding protection. The boot will thus be completely transfered to the other leg. It is better for the Democrats to suffer now and show selfrestraint by avoiding retaliation than to meet disorder and lawlessness with similar conduct."

But twelve more days remain in which to work for the redemption of the Palmetto State. Every Carolinian is expected to do his whole duty from now until our common mother is freed forever from the infamous tyranny, oppression and in the State, have expressed horror and corruption of carpet-bag rule. Farmers, merchants, lawyers, mechanics, preachers, doctors, all have a duty to perform, and we expect them to do it cheerfully, yes nobly. Every man should make his influence count upon his neighbors, his friends and his acquaintances. A united front will bring the reward of victory. Unity and activity are the watchword for every Democrat.

The vellow fever has abated considera bly in Savannab, and the death rate from that disease seems decreasing every day. The Mayor of Savannah has published card, in which he expresses the deep sense of gratitude felt by the people of that city for the generous benevolence and timely aid extended to the sufferers from all parts of the United States, and announcing that further contributions in money and supplies are not needed to meet the distress and destitution brought on by the fearful epidemic. It has been a terrible scourge for the people of Savannah, and the glad news of its disappearance will evoke gratitude and thankfulness in all parts of the country.

The Republican meeting at Walhalla on Saturday last was a small affair. The attendance was quite limited on account of Robinson's Circus exhibiting at Seneca Farmers' and Mechanics' Association of City on that day, which, proved a much greater attraction to the colored people than the antics of Chloroform Carpenter, Greener and Co. Only about four or five hundred participated in the meeting, including Democrats, and there were only about one hundred negroes present. Addresses were made by Carpenter, Greener, Talbot and others, who refused a joint discussion, which had been positively agreed upon in writing before the speakers arrived. Many questions were asked, which worried them considerably, but there was no disturbance, although Bryce took down about a hundred names of persons who put questions to the speakers. The colored men seemed more in favor of Hampton than ever after the meeting, and there is no doubt that the Democrats gained ground among them, in consequence of the bad faith shown in the refusal of a joint discussion The Radicals are prone to allege that Gens. Gary and Butler, of Edgefield, make it their business to incite riots and provoke bloodshed. In fact, these gentlemen are held up to the gaze of the world as being guilty of planning massacres, and devising tortures for the negroes Every decent, honest man in South Carolina knows that these allegations are the vilest slanders and most unmitigated falsehoods upon record, and no one save the villainous carpet-baggers in this State of the army has arrived, and they find and their colleagues in deviltry would venture to promulgate such vassertions But the facts of the recent ambuscade near Edgefield Court House vindicate our friends from such charges most conclusively, for all accounts agree that Butwhites. The army finds no foes, but all ler and Gary exerted their great and deserved influence to prevent retaliation upon the negroes for the cruel and unprovoked murder of a white Democrat. The opportunity was afforded them to simply allow the comrades of the murder-It would, indeed, be ludicrous if the ed man to act upon their own judgment, but it was the restraining influence of Gens: Gary and Butler which prevented further trouble and summary vengeance upon the negroes. Such conduct is in striking contrast with the horrible pictures of their characters drawn by the lying correspondents of Radical newspapers, North and South.

The Washington National Republican the organ of President Grant, advises the arrest and incarceration of Capt. F. W. Dawson, editor of the Charleston what it is pleased to term their "incendiary teachings." This looks a good deal son, who is engineering the conspiracy against the rights and liberties of the people of South Carolina, and whose advice seems potent in whatever pertains to the anomalous condition of affairs in this State. He is filling many important and responsible positions at this time. Besides drawing pay as United States Senator, he dictates the conduct of the Chief Executive of the United States towards an outraged people, and for the time being is occupying the office to which Mr. Grant was elected; he is the real Secretary of War, when troops are wanted has displaced Chamberlain from the liverance. GOLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 18, 1876. To the People of the State of South Carolina who desire honest government, without regard to political party or race: His Excellency the President of the United States did, on the 17th day of this month, issue a proclamation wherepresented in the person of General by he commanded "all persons engaged in unlawful and insurrectionary proceedings to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within three days from this date, and hereafter abandon > said combinations, and submit themselves to the laws and constituted authorities of said State." This proclamation is based upon the statements made by Daniel H. Chamberlain, the Governor of this State; which statements are simed principally against his political opponents, and are proven to be untrue by the testimony of every Judge in the State, every Trial Justice or other officer of the law from whom response has been obtained. Every resident of the State knows them to be untrue. Every Republican of character or intelligence, or who is not in office or seeking office, and many who are in office

We say this much for our vindication. Never has a people suffered more by dishonor of office and dishonesty of officers. Never has such bold untruth been used for the support of a movement which shakes the pillars upon which rest the constitutional temple of a mighty people. Our State is but a petty portion of the Union, but we call upon our sister States of the North to remember that the experiment now being made for "the domination of our elections by the bayonet and by soldiers as the irresistible instrument of a revolutionary local despotism. if successful, will become the precedent before which the whole fabric of American liberty will fall, and will be applied to other States just as soon as party exigencies require it. We make this declaration of our innocence not in disrespect of the President of the United States, but as an act of justice to ourselves as American citizens, and to put our case upon the record for an impartial trial before the great national tribunal. We bow in perfect submission to the proclamation of his Excellency the President, and exhort our fellow-citizens whom we represent in the present canvass to yield full and entire bedience to every command of the said proclamation.

We know that the clubs called "rifle clubs" are associations formed for home protection: that they are not combinations as charged by the Governor of this State: that there are but few that have arms or ammunition; that those which have been equipped were so done with the sanction and sometimes with the aid of the Governor, and have been recognized by him as useful and appropriate bodies, and not one of them has been ccused of disorder. We know that their necessity was oc asioned by the reckless distribution of arms and ammunition among the colored people by the State officials; and we further know that our white fellow-citizens were, on the 16th day of this month, massacred at a peaceful political assemblage, where (by agreement with C. C. Bowen, Republican Chairman for Charleston County, and Sheriff of the said County, and present at the meeting, and first Presidential Elector for the State at large on the Republican ticket) they went without arms to meet the colored race-the voters of the so-called Republican party in this State-who were likewise by Mr. Bowen's agreement, bound to be without arms : and we know that the politicians who are the authors of all our evils are teaching among the colored race the use of the rifle and the torch; we know that our homes are in peril, and that our women and children are exposed to the horrors of ruthless butchery and barbarity; but nevertheless, we advise and command, so far as our authority goes, that every such "rifle club" against which the misrepresentations of the Governor of the State are aimed be forthwith disbanded, and that the members thereof be held in future only by those ties of humanity which bind all good men together; that the name of the club be abandoned, and the officers cease to exercise their powers. This is said with the express declaration that these clubs are not associated with or subject to our political control. We repeat that we speak without disrespect to the President of the United States. He acts upon the statements made by the Governor of this State. But we say it that we may show our unwillingness to obey without committing an untruth against ourselves by seeming to acknowledge that of which we are not

We are not engaged in "unlawful and insurrectionary proceedings." We cannot "disperse," because we are not gathered together. We cannot "retire peaceably to our abodes," because we are in our homes in peace, disturbed alone by the political agitations created by the Governor and his minions.

But we resignedly-and cheerfully in the performance of our duty-suspend the exercise of our individual and private rights to prevent evil to the whole people. Relying upon the universal sense of right, and appealing to the Almighty to sustain us, we exhort our people to the continuance of submission to the authorities of the government, feeling assured by the carpet-baggers down here; and he that time and patience will work our de-

Proclamation of the President. By the President of the United States of America:

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, it has been satisfactorily shown to me that insurrection and domestic violence exist in several counties of the State of South Carolina, and that certain combinations of men against law exist in many counties of said State, known as "rifle clubs." who ride up and down, by day and night, in arms, mur-dering some peaceable citizens and in-timidating others, which combinations, though forbidden by the laws of the State, cannot be controlled or suppressed by the ordinary course of justice; and

United States shall protect every State in this Union on the application of the Legislature, or of the Execu-tive when the Legislature cannot be conwhen the Legislature cannot be convened, against domestic violence; and Whereas, by laws in pursuance of the above it is provided (in the laws of the United States) that in all cases of insurrection in any State (or of obstruction to the laws thereof,) it shall be lawful for the President of the United States, on application of the Legislature of such State, or of the Executive when the Legislature cannot be convened, to call for the militia of any other State or States or to employ such part of the land or naval forces as shall be judged necessary for the purpose of suppressing such insurrection or causing the laws to be duly executed; disgust at the course which the Governor Whereas, the Legislature of said State is not now in session, and cannot be con-vened in time to meet the present emergency, and the Executive of said State, section 4 of article 2 of the Consti tution, and of the laws passed in pursuance thereof, has, therefore, made due application to me in the premises for such part of the military force of the United states as may be necessary and adequate to protect said State and the citizens thereof against domestic violence, and to enforce the due execution of the laws;

Whereas, it is required that wherever it may be necessary, in the judgment of the President, to use the military force of the United States for the purpose aforesaid, he shall forthwith, by procla mation, command such insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their re-spective homes within a limited time... Now, therefore, I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States, do hereby make proclamation and command all ersons engaged in said unlawful and insurrectionary proceedings to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within three days from this date, and hereafter abandon said combinations and submit themselves to the lawful and constituted authorities of said State; and I invoke the aid and co-operation of all good citizens thereof to uphold the laws and preserve the public peace.

This provision, if in force in South Carolina, would disfranchise nine-tenths of the colored voters. Not one in ten of the colored men who heard General Hampton's words at Lancaster could vote or hold office in Massachusetts. Governor Chamberlain, in that State, would enjoy a privilege denied to nine-tenths of the colored people in South Carolina. This is all that General Hampton said or meant; the report from which the Union-Herald quotes did not pretend to give his exact words. It is likely enough that the Union-Herald, chagrined at the obedience to law of the Democracy, will try, by making allusions to General Ham to provoke a profitable retaliation. Such a paper, owned by Chamberlain and Cardozo, cannot insult General Hampton, and only wastes time in attempting it .-

THE PRESIDENT MISINFORMED .- The President of the United States is not in relation with very good sources of infor-mation as to the events of the day and the condition of the country, and, in consequence, there are several statements in his proclamation in regard to South Carolina which are erroneous. 1. It stated by the President that insurrection exiists in several counties of South Carolina; but this is not true. 2. It is stated that these insurrection cannot be controlled or suppressed by the ordinary course of justice." As the "ordinary course of justice" has not been tried, how can this be known? 3. It is said that the Legislature "cannot be convened in time to meet the emergency;" which is incorrect, for the Legislature can be convened sooner than troops can be taken there.—N. Y. Herald.

THE TROOPS .- Our soldiers are getting along finely and have endeared themselves to the people by their manly de-portment. The company is commanded by Captain T. J. Lloyd, a native of Philadelphia. His Lieutenants, Paul and Barnhart, are Pennsylvanians and fought through the war on the other side. They are all very pleasant, intelligent gentle men and have made many fast friends since they came to Abbeville .- Abbeville who raised his rifle and fired at them.

maining with the corpse of Gilmore. Major Kline, United States army, with his leg was shattered, and his horse badly wounded. The greatest excitement pre-vailed, but Gen. Gary, Gen. Butler and others, prevented pursuit and retaliation. The first ambush occurred within a short distance from a settlement of negroes on a tract of State land, who have had an organized militia company for two years.

They have recently paraded with new rifles, and are supposed to be the guilty parties. No further particulars have been received up to this hour. It will be remembered that Capt. Preston Blackwell was ambushed in the same manne and wounded, while returning from the last Democratic meeting on August 12. Governor Chamberlain states that he has been informed that this party of whites referred to engaged in a quarrel on the road, which led to an armed collision, in which two negroes were killed by the whites, and Mr. Gilmore was killed and two others wounded by the negroes. Judge Mackey brands this statement as utterly false, as the gentlemen who were in the party attacked stated the facts as above given to Maj. Kline, and gave as a reason for their being surprised that they did not suspect that there were any negroes on the road and they had had no previous quarrel with negroes on that day. The statement here given is con-firmed further by the fact that up to 9 o'clock this morning no complaint was made that any negroes had been killed

The verdict of the country upon the President's course against South Carolina begins to be heard. The tone is one of unmistakable condemnation. Some of the criticism relates to the ignorance or violation of law displayed in the proclamation. That criticism may, perhaps, be too fine for popular patience. Though it will make the slowest impression, it will nevertheless make the longest and strong-est impression. Since Wednesday eminent jurists and law writers have shown that the President's proclamation is contrary to the Constitution, contrary to the Federal statutes and contrary to the decis-who peruse the slightest defenses of the Thieves' party in South Carolina, merely say: "That is wrong." When they see allegations of disorder, and cruelty put forward to justify the bayonet policy, they merely say: "These are lies."— Against the conviction of the public mind of the wrong and the lies about

South Carolina, the organs waste them selves in vain. The Americans often get false views of public events for a short time: but in this South Carolina matter their vision has been clear and their in formation full and correct. The pure ethics of the question have come to them direct. They realize that Republicanism in South Carolina includes every form cludes every form and degree of tyranny.

Crime and tyranny when realized never

APPOINTMENTS FOR THE CAM-PAIGN.

ROOMS CEN. Ex. COM. ANDERSON CO.

Major Kline, United States army, with several army officers, Gen. Gary and others at once repaired to the scene of the killing. Mr. Outsee was then dis-patched to the village for the coroner, Anderson, S. C., Sept. 25, 1876. At the regular meeting of the Central Executive Committee of the Democratic party for Anderson County, held this day, it was determined to arrange a series of meetings for the various Democratic Clubs, in conformity with the regular meetings so far as possible. and to appoint speakers to address the citizens generally at the times specified. It is especially intended and desired that the Democratic Clubs shall secure a large attendance of colored voters at these meetings, and at the same time procure full representation of the membership. The following list of appointments will be observed:

> In addition to the foregoing appointments, the Executive Committee have arranged the following series of consolidated meetings for the closing week of the campaign:

the closing week of the campaign:

At Townville, on Tuesday, 31st of October, embracing the Fork Clubs and Oconee County. Speakers—E. M. Rucker, J. W. Livingston, James A. Hoyt, James L. Orr, W. S. Pickens and G. W. Maret.

At Craytonville, on Tuesday, 31st of October, embracing the Boadaway, Honea Path, Martin and Belton Clubs. Speakers—W. C. Brown, John' B. Moore, E. B. Murray, J. W. Norris and R. W. Simpson.

At Williferd's Store, on Wednesday, 1st day of November, embracing Centreville, Savannah and Rock Mill Clubs. Speakers—T. H. Russell, W. C. Brown, R. W. Simpson, H. R. Vandiver and James A. Hoyt.

At Pisgah, on Wednesday, 1st day of November, embracing Williamston, Brushy Creek, Slabtown and Hopewell Clubs.—Speakers—John B. Moore, E. B. Marray, James L. Orr, W. D. Wilkes and W. S. Pickens.

Messrs. Yelldell and Outsee, as above given, contradicted in any respect. Nor does Governor Chamberlain pretend to sive the names of the negroes alleged to Springs, Garvin and Hunter's Spring Clubs. vpeakers—James A. Hoyt, James L. Orr, H. I. Epting and T. H. Russell. At Gabriel McGee's, on Thursday, 2nd of November, embracing the Dark Corner, Hall and Flat Rock Clubs. Speakers—W. W. Russell, E. B. Murray, W. D. Wilkes, R. W. Simpson, W. S. Pickens and John B.

The above meetings will take place at 10 o'clock a. m., and in designating the consolidated meetings, the Executive Committee depends upon the Clubs named in each locality to make all necessary arrangements, and for them to determine whether or not barbecue shall be given. The object of these meetings is to instruct the people, white and colored, and to in crease the strength of the Democracy in Anderson County to the utmost extent securing increased vigilance, activity and energy among all its advocates as the day of election approaches. Let all unite in a hearty co-operation for the attainment of this end.
